

Château Montrose 1986

Grand Cru Classé in 1855, Saint-Estèphe

Key Selling Points

- Takes its name from the hill once covered in heather, the "Mont Rose"
- The youngest Second Grand Cru Classé of 1855: a swift ascent, the promise of an exceptional terroir
- 95 ha vineyard in a single stand, in front of the Gironde
- A vineyard of Terraces (No.03, No.04) shaped by the river, elite viticultural cores
- A precise viticultural approach: authentic wines, reflecting every singularity of the terroirs

Château Montrose, endowed with remarkable power and precision, it captures the essence of Terrace No.04: the original terroir, the promised land of cabernet sauvignon.

Climatic conditions

Spring was rather cool, but from June onwards, very favorable conditions encouraged flowering.

After a hot and, above all, very dry summer, fine weather persisted throughout the harvest.

Blend

Cabernet Sauvignon : 67 %, Merlot : 27 %, Cabernet Franc : 6 %

Harvest date

September 30th - October 16th

Terroir

Terrace No.04 essentially:
sandy gravels on clay-rich
substrate, iron layer

Tasting note

The wine displays a dense, deep color with beautiful ruby hues. The nose is rich and expressive, revealing notes of black fruit, blond tobacco and liquorice.

On the palate, it is broad and harmonious, unfolding lovely aromas of black fruit, forest floor and leather, underpinned by remarkable freshness. The wine impresses with its balance and generous length.

The finish is long and smooth, elegantly prolonging this harmonious expression.
