

Terrasse

de Château Montrose

2023

Cuvée parcelleire, Saint-Estèphe

Key Selling Points

- Takes its name from the hill once covered in heather, the “Mont Rose”
- The youngest Second Grand Cru Classé of 1855: a swift ascent, the promise of an exceptional terroir
- 95 ha vineyard in a single stand, in front of the Gironde
- A vineyard of Terraces (No.03, No.04) shaped by the river, elite viticultural cores
- A precise viticultural approach: authentic wines, reflecting every singularity of the terroirs

Terrasse: It offers a new perspective on the Château Montrose vineyard. Born from the deep gravel soils of Terrace No. 3, this eponymous cuvée reveals a singular expression of Cabernet Sauvignon, marked by purity, precision, and tension.

Climatic conditions

- Winter: mild, with moderate rainfall
- Spring: relatively warm and sunny, with light and steady rain
- Summer: dry and temperate, with heatwaves at the end of the season
- Autumn: rainy from October onward, with mild temperatures

Blend

60% Cabernet Sauvignon | 31% Merlot | 8% Cabernet Franc | 1% Petit verdot

Vinification

Micro-parcel vinification
Gentle taylor-made extractions
13 distinct press qualities

Ageing

18 months
French oak barrels
40% new oak

Terroir

Terrace No. 3: Gravelly sands over very deep clay-gravel soils

Cultural practices

Organic Viticulture
Management through regenerative soil agriculture

Tasting notes

Its nose reveals a lovely freshness. On the palate, the wine shows seriousness, driven by long, vibrant, and highly precise tannins. It displays remarkable balance and great length, offering a new, clearly defined and refined expression of the estate.